“ I did not know Amy as well as some but what little I did know her through interactions at Napa were always pleasant. She was very good at her job and took pride in getting you out the door with the right part the first time and always like to joke and laugh. My condolences to family and friends! She will be missed by all!

“ I moved back to Poland last year. Amy and I hadn't talked for a while but we were good friends in elementary school. She was the first one to get in touch with me and offer to help us get settled into our new home. She was such a kind person.

“ Chuck and I have so many memories of you and your family. We watched you grow up. Though we didn't see you unless crossing paths at Wal-Mart it doesn't lessen the impact you had in our lives. Our hearts are with your family and loved ones.

“ This doesn't seem real. I am glad to have so many happy memories with my sister. Things will never be the same.

“ My you R.I.P, although I did not you ,for too long.
You treated me like family, the first time we met.
I will cherish, the day we spent together. While mom ,and your sister went shopping.
Instead of reacting, to the stares we got at Wal-Mart.
You grabbed my hand, and said . " Let's give them, something to look at".
Will miss you, love your brother in law.

“ Was shocked and heart broken to hear this news..Although we only knew eachother for a few years you made me laugh, and we shared our story's of our days...The good and the sad. The times when you would tell me you had to rush home to help shovel and do for your family warmed my heart so much. I'm going to miss you Ames. It's going to be hard to call Napa and you won't be there to say. Hey I'm here, I will straighten it out..You were a beautiful person inside and out and had a heart of gold. My deepest sympathy and condolences to all your family and friends.
