AUBURN - Cenis "May" Turcotte, a resident of Sarah Frye Assisted Living in Auburn Maine, passed away peacefully April 4th, 2020 with loving family by her side. Born October 6th, 1925 as Cenis "May" Polland, in North Parsonsfield, Maine. The daughter of Arthur and Florence Polland. She attended a one room schoolhouse in Oxford Maine along with most of her 11 siblings. May worked for many local shoe shops until her retirement. Her hobbies include, crafts made with beads, gardening both flowers and vegetables, but most of all she loved to cook. And cook she did! She was known to give all her baked goods to family, friends and anyone who needed it. Pies, breads, muffins and biscuits. Four children, Norma Cook of Alabama, Mary Bussiere of Auburn, Armand Turcotte and his wife Mary of Livermore, Irene Chabot and her partner Leo Bilodeau of Woolwich, step daughters Patricia Stamos and Elaine Leavitt. She has 18 great grandchildren and 13 great-great grandchildren, along with many nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her, she was a very special lady.
