“ To my Conley cousins: Paul, Mary Beth and Peter, My sympathies to each of you. I will forever cherish memories of Uncle Joe holding court in Lewiston or Goose Rocks Beach, telling stories that connected all of us. I think I'll have a Budweiser in his honor. With much love during a difficult time.

“ To Paul, Mary Beth, and Peter I was so sorry to hear of your loss. Losing both parents within such a short span of time is very difficult. Joe had become the Conley family patriarch and he will be missed. I will remember him from earlier times as a good storyteller with a sense of humor and a twinkle in his eye. Our sympathies go out to you. Love, Claire and Stuart

“ To Paul, Mary Beth and Peter, I was so sorry to hear about your loss. Losing both parents in such a short time span makes it even more difficult. Uncle Joe had become the Patriarch of the Conley family as the last member of his generation. I will remember him from his earlier days, as he always had a good story to tell, a sense of humor and a twinkle in his eye. Our condolences and sympathies go out to you, Claire and Stuart
