“ Kara, this is so sudden and all too soon. I will miss our little heart to heart talks about "life" and God. Your smile is contagious and it's evident you loved those 2 little boys more than anything else! I pray one day we will be reunited and we can yet again chat and you will still hold that beautiful smile!

“ Kara: You were always a blessing in our lives and we will miss you with all our hearts. Be sure to give Aunt Kathy a Big hug and Kiss for us all. Kelly Humphrey and Paul Champagne: Our deepest condolences to you both, burying your child is something I'm sure that you never thought would be a part in your lifes journey. You were so young when you had Kara, but you both did an amazing job raising her. She was respectful, sweet, and had a beautiful heart because of your job well done. Mark Humphrey and Lynne Champagne: You were such a great support for your spouses and a very important role in the upbringing of Kara, she grew up a strong, independent woman because of your guidance and love that you gave with her Mom and Dad in raising her. Please accept our deepest condolences at this truly sad time. Adam, Jamie, Christopher and Chelsey: You were her siblings and she knew that she could count on you all. You all have your own special memories with Kara that only brothers and sisters share. We are so sad with the loss of your sister you are all in our thoughts and prayers. Cayden and Calvin: You are the twinkle in your mothers eyes, she loved and adored you with all her heart and will shine down on you from heaven and send you her love everyday. To all of her Grandparents: Kara had so much love and happiness whenever she was around her grandparents, uncles, aunties, neices and nephews. Everyone loved her and she loved us all. My deepest sympathies to all who knew her, and had the privledge to share in her life. May you all somehow find peace in your hearts while enduring this tragic time in your lives. We will keep you all in our hearts and prayers. Love Aunt Christy and Uncle Rick.

“ Although it had been some time since I last saw Kara, my memories of her are still quite vivid. I remember first meeting her in 6th grade, and I was so happy that she was someone I could call a friend. I pray for her family and her beautiful boys during this difficult time. It's so hard to understand why someone so young, and full of life could be taken from us far too soon. Heaven has gained another angel that will watch over all that loved her. Rest easy Kara.

“ I really enjoyed it when Kara would stop by work- she made me laugh; I could relate to her on alot of levels, sharing some of the same personality traits :) The image I will keep of Kara is her smile when she was around those kids, she beamed- there was no denying she loved being a mother. She loved you Kel & appreciated all you had done for her, she told me that on more than one occasion- no mother could have done more, I truly believe that. I also believe that she is at peace with your Mom & her spirt is going to live through those boys & they, along with the rest of your family, will get you through the hard days...praying for all of you daily. Love,Cindy

“ Kara, I'm so happy I have all of these wonderful memories to remember you by. From the time we met in high school, I knew we would be life long friends. Though we lost contact over the years, your name popped into my head often and it always made me smile. Your laugh was infectious and your smile was so inviting. I wish the best for your entire family and especially those beautiful boys you have. I'm sorry I never got a chance to tell you how much you mean to me. You will be remembered forever and always. I love you, rest well my friend.

“ Those we love remain with us For love itself lives on, And cherished memories never fade Because a loved one's gone. Those we love can never be More than a thought apart, For as long as there is memory, They'll live on in the heart.

“ Kar Bear we will never understand what happened. You will never understand how much you were truly loved by us. We love and remember the beautiful fair hair beauty that used to get carried into church on Uncle Bills hip and sit and pull candy out of his pocket then give him big sticky smooches. What we wouldnt give for a big sticky KarBear kiss right now. May you find peace in your soul and be our guardian angel here on earth until we meet again. you will be eternaly missed by all of those that loved you my lil Kar Bear. Memories we hold in our minds and Sadness we hold in our hearts is all we have right now. We will be strong for your Mom and Mark and Adam and your babies I am sad that you will miss all the goodness life had to offer .Love you baby

“ Kelly mark and Adam my deepest condolences to you and your family for the loss of Kara. I'll never forget all the fun amazing years of having a great friendship with her and her amazing smile. I'll hold onto all the memories of her for the rest of my life she was truly an amzing person unfortunately god takes some of us all to young it's not fair but we all will have a beautiful angel always watching over us. I hope her boys can stay strong through this and always know how wonderful their mom was and how loved she was and always will be by all. You are all in my thoughts and may you all be able to hold eachother tight and get through these hard times together.
