“ I feel so bad for you boys, Kathy struggled throughout her life with demons and she unfortunatley could not control them. She loved and she cared for others but not herself. I was there many times and yet I feel bad that 6 months ago I had to say no, It hurts today as I am sure you know. She loved you boys so much and the grandchildren and she was so proud of you and she deserved so much more then what she had in life, I know no one will ever take her place in your lives but know she bragged about you always, she loved her grandchildren they broguht her joy. And you boys certainly were the light in her life the two most important pieces and she will live on in your hearts and those of your children. She is no longer dealing with the demons she is at peace at last I know you will always miss her and we will always hold her memories dear but she is in a better place. Take care and know she is with you

“ Joey and BJ,I was so sorry to hear of your lose. I'll always remember your mother as such a loving person. She was always so good to me and when we were kids I always knew that I could go to her to talk when i didn't want to talk to my mom about something. I remember her waiting for the bus with us or driving us to school or dances. She loved you guys so much and I'm sure she was an amazing grandmother to your kids. It's hard to believe we're grown up enough to have our own kids. If there's anything you ever need I'm here for you. You were a huge part of my growing up years and so was your mom. I'll never forget her.Love, Kim
