“ I was stunned last night when a cousin telephoned to tell me she saw Lin's obituary. I would have come to the hospital and funeral if I had known. Carl, Maurice and Diana, I am so sorry for your loss. I am also saddened for me, we grew up together. Please call me. Lin, I hope you are in a place of peace and contentment with your mother, Myrt and Larry. Thinking about that and smiling, you're probably having a good time. Have one for me.

“ While I am very sad I could not be there with the family and my husband Carl, I know that Linda knows how much I love her. I already missed how she would prep all the fixings for dinner and I'd cook. And the movies and tv shows we would watch together, like 24 in three days lol. I will miss you greatly and know you will keep an eye on me in China, especially until Carl makes it back.
