“ My sincere condolences to Lois's family. I had the privilege of spending time with Lois at Westford House. She enjoyed participating in various activities such as kickball, crafts, crossword puzzles, spiritual devotions, entertainment, and various outings. I also enjoyed working with her on several of her puzzles, as she always had one in varying stages in her room. Lois was a woman of strong faith & loved her family. I will truly miss her. May her loved ones feel God's abundant love & peace during this difficult time. - Lisa Grant (sister in Christ)

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to Lois's family. For the past two years I brought library books to Lois at Westford House and being a fellow Mainer we had lots to talk about. She spoke often of her family with great pride. Lois was a lovely person and will be truly missed.
