“ Dearest Lynda you have been my second Mom since I met you at age 12. You loved protected and guided me thru my life. I will miss you so much your capacity to love and never judge anyone just to encourage is such a rare trait that you possessed . I will miss you so much and have shed many tears for the loss we all feel till we meet again love you love you.

“ You were my mother in law for 37 years I couldn't ask for a better mother in law I love it when you made me pea soup and you and I would be alone to eat it because no one else liked it so I had you all to myself on those nights and when you tough me to crochet those so many years ago and all the other things in between I will miss you like crazy RIP sweet lady
