

Madison Paige Dillingham

August 21, 1988 - November 21, 2006

LEWISTON - Madison Paige Dillingham, 18 a resident of Hemlock Street, Sabattus died unexpectedly late Tuesday evening at Central Maine Medical Center as a result of injuries received in an automobile accident. She was born in West Palm Beach, Florida on August 21, 1988. She is the daughter of P. Seth and Tia M. (Hall) Roberts. Madison was a recent graduate of Oak Hill High School where she was a member of both the National and Spanish Honor Societies. Madison served 6 years with United States Air Force Auxiliary, Civil Air Patrol with the rank of Major which made her the highest ranked female Civil Air Patrol Cadet in Maine She graduated in the top 10 percent of her graduating class this year, and was attending the University of Maine at Farmington to pursue a career in teaching.. Besides her parents of Sabattus, she is survived by her maternal grandmother, Rebecca "Nana" Bennett of Portland, her maternal grandfather, David "Pepe" Bennett of Monmouth; paternal grandmother, Sheryl Titcomb-Gilbert of Sabattus; two sisters and best friend, Alexandria Dillingham of Auburn, and Morgana Roberts of Sabattus; her "Unca" Josh Roberts of Sabattus and many aunts, uncles, and cousins. DILLINGHAM died in Lewiston, November 21, 2006, Madison Paige Dillingham age 18 years a resident of Sabattus. Funeral services celebrating the life of Madison Dillingham will be held MONDAY 11:00AM, November 27th at the East Auburn Baptist Church with Pastor Roger Cousineau presiding with graveside committal prayers to follow at Evergreen Cemetery Stevens Mills Rd., Auburn. Online condolences and sharing of memories may be expressed at www.lynchbrothers.com Visitation Sunday 2-4 & 7-9PM at the family owned DILLINGHAM & SON MEMORIAL CHAPEL & TRIBUTE CENTER 62 Spring St., Auburn, 784-6449

Tribute Wall

SE

“ Hey Madi, Several years have passed darling. I still miss you very much. There is so much I want to talk to you about. I still dream about you all the time. Take care honey, see you soon.

Seth - April 28, 2013 at 11:32 PM

PA

“ Becky and family. I know we have not met in person, but we have shared many joys and sorrows through our internet connections on tweleve.org. and we knew Madison through you. We are so saddened for you and your family and it is so difficult to understand and accept this sad news, but one can only trust there is a higher power that knows so much more than we do. He tells us for now, we only know in part, and see through a glass darkly, but some day we will know the full story and I am sure the story from the other side will not be lined with our tears and sad hearts. Until then, God provides us with friends to hold our hands high over our heads through the battles that we cannot possibly fight ourselves. I'm here for you if you need me. Your friend, Peg.

Peggy Altizer - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

TR

“ Madison, I want to be selfish, and not let you go!! I know that you are w/Our Savior and Lord.. probably re-arranging Heaven right now w/your OCD. You are so loved and missed!

Tia Roberts - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

SM

“ Madi was a great person. She was kind, caring, and had a great personality. She always made me laugh. We would have so much fun whenever we hung out. What happened was not fair, but we have to remember that everything happens for a reason, whether we like it or not, and that she's in a better place and will always be watching over us. I am going to miss her so much, along with everybody else. I'll always love you Madi.

Sammantha Malinowski - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

JM

“ We are truly and deeply sorry for the loss of Madison. We greatly appreciate being god parents and part of such a wonderful family. If at any time you need us we will be right there. We love you from the deepest part of our hearts and you will be in our prayers. God Bless

Jenn and Bobby Mandigo - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

AS

“ Tia,I am so sorry for your loss. There are no words that can lessen the pain. After I lossed my brother, I found comfort in this prayer. INDIAN PRAYERDo not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep. I am in a thousand winds that blow, I am the softly falling snow.I am the gentle showers of rain, I am the fields of ripening grain. I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am the star-shine of the night. I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. I am in the birds that sing, I am in each lovely thing. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I do not die.

Aaron Swift - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

CG

“ Madison Page Dillingham, You are a great person, you always spread happiness with your infectious smile and your cunning ways. You are the best friend a person could ask for. I will miss you, I do miss you. You have always been a hard worker and a dedicated person. I thank god that I had you as a friend. You have alot of people who love and miss you. You touched alot of lives. I am struggling to make sense of it all. I really miss you. Please Be a beautiful angel and watch over me and your family, I will see you again someday. Love, "brother" Christopher Giles

Christopher Giles - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

AS

“ Hey Madi, I miss u and Love u very much. EVEN when i only knew you for 3 months i still want u to know u are my hero madi, ive heard so many great things about u. wish i knew u longer . see ya later madi. I love u ashley - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

HS

“ I don't have the right words to comfort you, but just know that you are in our hearts, our prayers and our thoughts.

Heather Thomas Sheehy - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DG

“ We have felt blessed to have known Madison from birth and to have experienced her love. Madison, You will be deeply missed and we loved you very much. Love Aunt Diane, John and Matt , your " big brothers"

Diane Greenwood - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

MB

“ Madison touched many lives in her brief time at UMF; her peers in her English seminar and her friends in other classes have expressed their sense of loss and grief. Madi was a bright, vibrant, creative young woman, with such a great, independent spirit -- you are not alone in missing her. Someone suggested that she would be rearranging heaven right now; she was not afraid to express her ideas, to point out social injustice evident in our readings, to write passionately and eloquently from her core. Her memory will continue to inspire those whom she touched. I am so sorry for your loss; words cannot go far enough.

Misty Beck - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DT

“ Madison was a beautiful young lady..... A joy to those who knew and loved her. I pray that your faith will sustain you in this time of great sorrow and that you will find comfort in the support of family and friends.

Dawna Thomas - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

GI

“ always in our thought and minds, hearts and souls. You touched so many of us in your short time here. We love you and will always miss your smiling face!!

Gina - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DB

“ We are so sorry for your tragic loss.

Donna and Quentin Besch - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

PD

“ Tia and Seth I know there isn't anything I can say to ease your pain. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

Patti Dyer - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

“ Although I didnt have the chance to get to know Madison very well, I know she was an amazing girl. I met her in our english class, and ended up working with her on a group project. She was very willing to help anyone in need and always had a smile on even in that 8am class. To her family and other friends: I am so sorry for your loss. Madison: You will be missed and I wish I could have gotten to know you better!

November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

SL

“ Tia i am so sorry to hear about your loss i know that no words could take away your pain. madison was a wonderful young lady, and you did a wonderful job raising her. my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. if you ever need anything please call ...

sherry light - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

EH

“ Tia - My heart breaks for you and your family. Your are in my thoughts and prayers. Hugs to you and your family. Sincerely, Eileen Heidrich

Eileen Heidrich - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

PE

“ i'll miss you Madi you brought joy to our home. We hade to work hard at drawing you in,you were so shy and quiet. I have a peice of my heart missing now you are gone, but I know I will have that peice back when we worship at JESUS feet together who is the PRINCE OF PEACE. I love you, Uncle Peter

Peter - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DM

“ Madi was a great cousin. She would help you if you needed it. I'm so sad knowing I wont see her again and it's hard to know she won't ever walk through the door again to see us. I know everyone wishes she was still here and so do I. I love you so much Madi. Love, Dana

Dana Malinowski - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

MB

“ Dear Tia, Lexi and Seth And all of Madisons family and friends, The world has been Blessed to know and love such a dynamic child/young lady. She was the "Sweetest". Loved by all. You will never be forgotten Madi. God's Plan I was once told that as time goes by Everything changes with no reason why Explanations we won't receive We're just told we must believe The Lord has a plan for each of us This I Believe..... Aunt Mona

Mona Beeler - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

RR

“ Madi , you will be sadly missed, though whenever i think of you i will always smile , yet have a tear in my eye. We shared a lot of laughter and fun times. Remembering how you lived your life to the fullest will be an inspiration for us all. Thank you for setting such a good example for us all. God bless you Madi love uncle Rick

Richard Ryan II - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

RD

“ This is one of those things that you never expect to be doing, saying goodbye to one of your friends... It's even so hard to believe, I dont even know what to think. Madi, we miss you. I just wish that I had talked to you more often. I'm glad for the memories that I do have of all the fun times we had. You were always so happy and brought a smile to all of our faces. You were the tough girl who no one would mess with, but could be the shoulder to cry on when needed, and always a kid at heart. You were so strong emotionally and mentally and that made an impact on a lot of people. I wish that I could actually see you one last time cause it's been so long. To see your smile and give you a hug. Thanks for always being such a good friend in CAP. You'll be missed MadDog. We'll never forget you.

Ryan Dennett - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DG

“ Madi you will be greatly miss. I will always remember you in my heart. Whenever I saw you, you were always happy and full of joy. I know now you are in a better place and someday I will see you in the blue skies above. GOD BLESS love , Derek

Derek Griffith - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

AJ

“ Madi, I still can't believe it's true. It didn't even seem real until today. You will never understand how much you have meant to me. You've helped me through some very rough times. You were always there to lend a listening ear, and you always supported me even if you thought I was making the wrong decision. I will miss all of our late night talks. I feel blessed to have been your friend, and I hope to God I will see you again someday. I love you and I miss you. -angela

Angela Jauregui - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

RL

“ Tia, You and your family are in my thoughts and my prayers. God bless and keep you all.

Randi Lemieux - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

LM

“ I wished so bad that i could have gotten closer to you, madison. Meeting you at prom was amazing and you were so nice and funny. I loved stopping and talking to you at UMF, i just wish i would have made more time to do so. You were always outgoing and fun to be around and from the talks we had i know that you were an amazing person. I know that you have made an incredible impact on everyone that you have met, and you will never be forgotten. You have touched the lives of everyone. Your spirit will always be with us and you will always be in our hearts, i give you all of my love....always and forever

Lizzie Martel - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

SE

“ Hey Madi, We did it honey, just the way YOU would have wanted it. It was a long, hard week, and I am sure it will only get harder before it gets better. I love you Madison. It was so hard knowing that tonight I kissed you for the very last time. You are missed by so many. Those who know you best would agree, tonight was all about you. See you when God calls me home baby girl.

Seth - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

BM

“ To Monkey Madi, Its hard to describe the sadness we all feel, but we will never forget the good times we had with you. Camping, swimming ,and our Maddies first, and many sleep overs. You have touched our lives more then you will ever know. Our hearts go out to your family.... Take care.. Tia and Lexi...All our Love, The Chappell's & Frazier..

Brad, Lisa , and Little Madi - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

RS

“ We were blessed by your prssence in our lives from the day we first met you. We could not have loved you more if you were born to our family. You were one of our girls no matter what. I thank you for letting me be an Auntie to you. And I will always have a special place in my heart for you. I miss you and love you. But I will see you again someday before we know it we will be there with you praising our Lord together. As always with all my love Auntie Beck

Rebecca Swan - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

EC

“ Dear Dillingham Family, Though I did not know your beloved daughter, I have 3 children of my own (2 in their 30's and 1 who is 10, adopted from China), and I have taught young people for 30 years. A child's presence in our lives is immeasurable in importance; a child is the light of our hearts, our souls. So I can only imagine and grieve for you at your hearts' breaking as you face this terrible loss. In church on Thanksgiving morning, I mentioned your family (I did not say your name); the church went silent. I could feel the people's prayers and sadnesses; they all could imagine. The minister, in his final words, asked for a special prayer for your family and community. You may not be church goers, but these were just people, like myself, moved deeply by your loss, wishing to find some way to ease your loss. I have lived through several painful losses and know this: though the loss remains, it softens, and at some point, you may feel Madison there beside you, as I do my mother and a best friend. I pray for this for you. It will be a difficult holiday season for you; I hope you find some new way to get through the holiday, a way that makes it a different day in a way that may help heal your pain. You will be in my thoughts. Sincerely, Elizabeth Cooke, professor at UMF

Elizabeth Cooke - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DM

“ We have never met but my daughter lived in the same Dorm as Madison at UMF and they met this year. My heart sank when I heard about the accident and the incredible loss I know you are feeling. As a parent this has to be one of the toughest things to accept. Words can't express the sorrow I feel for you folks. I pray that somehow it will be easier as time goes by for you to deal with this and that the loving memories you have of Madison stay with you always.

David McIntire - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

EL

“ Dear sweet Madison, What a terrible loss we feel. You are quite an amazing being and I feel so fortunate to have had you in our lives if only for such a brief time. I know how much you enjoyed coming to our cabin for weekly dinners and we sure loved having you there. You were becoming quite the prep-cook for Ben. You were so happy. Ben misses you with a deep pain. I really loved our talks about your courses at UMF and your plans and your family, and it was such a treat to get your emails -- you certainly loved exclamation points!!!! That seems to be how you lived your life -- full of exclamation points. You have changed our family forever and it is up to us to take the lessons we learn from our special time with you as well as our tragic loss of you. Thank you for your beautiful loving spirit. Godspeed to you, dear girl. Elizabeth

Elizabeth Luckraft - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

KB

“ Word has reached the UMF community and their parents. We are so saddened to hear of your loss during what was suppose to be a family time. I know the kids and community will band together and support each other. Something like this really makes you realize how you have to cherish the time you have with the people around you. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family, friends and community.

Kim Barton - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

CM

“ Madison, we will miss you. Your strong spirit and dedication will live on to be an inspiration for all that knew you. You always had a way of making things better. Your smile could brighten the dullest of days. I know you're with the Lord now. During encampment 2005 you spoke about your love for God and you desire to grow closer to Him. I remember reading in Proverbs with you. We were given a hard time for having a Bible study but you never cared. You were a great leader and even a better friend. It seems like a long time before I get to see you again, but it's nothing compared to eternity. I'll be thinking of you while I finish my time down here. Good bye for now. To those that loved her: In this time of tragedy all we can do is trust in the sovereignty of the Lord. I, a friend for only 6 years, do not know how do deal with this loss. I can't even imagine the suffering of those knew her the best. Lt. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts, from the bottom of my heart, know that my prayers are with you. I have nothing to say that can make the pain go away. There is only one person that can get us through this. ?And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.? - Romans 8:28

Chris McCarthy - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

CR

“ This poem was a favorite of mine and Auntie Gina's when we were teenagers. I was just thinking of you Madison and this poem popped into my head so I wanted to share it with you as well as with everyone who loves you. I know how much you loved poetry. Miss and love you, you are forever in our hearts. Love Auntie Cori
Nothing Gold Can Stay
Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

Corinne Ryan - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

AC

“ I liked Madison very much. There was nothing small about this young woman. She was a Force to be reckoned with. An over-achiever with a big soft heart and a commanding AURA that could at once sweep you away and at the same time make you stay and believe in magic...that magic that few young people have that stand up and say "I CAN DO and BE ANYTHING !" She was all that...she loved working with young, new cadets in the program and NEVER put herself on a pedestal although by her indomitable spirit and winning smile, we put her up there. I will miss her. My deepest and sincere condolences to her family and friends

Anita M Cheney - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

SG

“ Tia, there are no words to say the sadness and loss we all felt for you. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. You should be proud she accomplished so much and is a very special girl. Just know that I am here if you need anything we are just a phone call away. All my love.

Sue Genthner - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

RB

“ My beautiful little Angel face, no one will ever take your place. The short 18 years i had with you are in my memories held together wth glue. You brought such joy to family and friends, you were a treasure that never ends. An inspiration like a bright light, because of your knowledge and insight. A breath of fresh air where ever you went, and i always knew you were Heaven sent. Thank God for sharing you as long as He did, you were one in a million, a powerful kid. We'll think of you often with a slight grin, until we meet up and can hold you again. I know you'll be with me, my time here on earth, And when I come to you, it'll be my rebirth. Unti that day comes, i know you'll be near, close beside us, from Heaven to here. Protect us, and guide us and just wait, and when we meet with you, we'll all celebrate. So, take care my Angel, until that day's here, i'll try to smile more, and not shed a tear. And always remember, My beautiful little Angel-Face, No one will ever take your place. I LOVE YOU, AND WILL MISS YOU ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE. your thankful...nana rebecca benett - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DA

“ Oh Lord WHY?!? Madi, "Monkey", you did so much, and had fun doing it, yet would have accomplished so much more, and I am sure had fun doing it. You are a great person who touched so many lives. Madi, Monkey, I know you are in heaven where Mr D met you with open arms, it just should not have been so soon. God Bless You and your family.

Dave - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DP

“ Seth & family: When I saw the paper this morning, my heart broke on your behalf. I remember the beautiful pictures of your daughter that you showed us on your laptop when we went to Anaheim, as well as how you sang her praises!!! You were so incredibly proud, and reading about her in the paper clearly shows why. What an awesome young lady; God evidently needed an EXTRA SPECIAL angel in heaven this Thanksgiving. My thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family, and please don't hesitate to give your All-America City "family" a call should you need some encouragement. God bless, Dottie Perham-Whittier

Dottie Perham-Whittier - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

MB

“ Madi- I've been thinking about this alot the past day and a half now. I just want you to know that you were an amazing person and friend. You always made me laugh, and I will forever hold our memories in my heart. I miss you madi, and I cant wait to see you again someday! We can have some more crazy times ok? I love you Yoga, and I will talk to you in my prayers. Rest in peace madi monster. Miss you so much Love Magan

Magan Blais - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

LN

“ Dearest Seth, we only got to know you both for such a short time, but you were so proud of Madison and that showed in your face when you spoke of her and also her sister Lexi. What we did see was a vibrant, gung ho, young lady who wouldn't let anything stand in her way. If there was something she wanted, she would get it! You were such fun during the two weeks we spent with you, but you also showed great discipline too and you were passionate with your feelings, whether it was about a specific subject or person. Madison will miss that, I am sure. Tia, we did not meet you and our hearts go out to you, today and always. It is such a heart rening loss to loose a child, but knowing Seth, you will get through this, will all the love you have between you all. The new little one, will be a godsend, not a replacement, but a little sparkle of the shining star, that is now shining on you from heaven. Take care xxx

LESLEY, COLIN AND CRAIG NICOL - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

JT

“ Mad Dog, I will always remember how you helped me out in CAP. You were a great mentor to me on the Honor Guard Team and in life in general. Rest in peace girl. I love you.

Jessica Cheney/ Tillson - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

FS

“ Words cannot express our sadness over here in Scotland on hearing of this sad loss. We only had a brief time to get to know Maddison but we are privilidged to have had the oppotinity to get to know her and her Dad, Seth. Our thoughts go out to all the family and friends in the USA. Loving thoughts to you all .Fiona Selfridge

Fiona Selfridge - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

LS

“ Tia, I am so sorry for your loss. I could not imagine your pain. I am so sorry I did not keep in touch with you, Alexandria and Madison. This is a double loss for me. My greatest loss is not getting to know Madison and follow her though her life. Madison was an amazing young woman. You should be extremely proud. I'm sure it is because you are an amazing mother. I pray that I may have the chance to get to know Alexandria. She is also amazing. Tia, You have done a wonderful job with your girls. Also congratulations on your new daughter. May God give you peace and strength.

Lisa (Dillingham) Sylvia - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

V?

“ Madison you where and will alwas be loved and we all will keep you in are hearts!!! Love Chapman

Vicente ♦Chapman - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

PO

“ To the Roberts family- Although I never personally met Madison, I have heard from the other cadets what kind of a wonderful person she was. She will be dearly missed. She achieved quite a bit in her relatively short life and I hope she will become an inspiration to all the younger cadets that follow in her footsteps. If there is anything the squadron can ever do for your family, please dont hesitate.

Peter Ouellette - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

CK

“ I only met you once, and I remember how much we resemble each other. I'm sad that we didn't get to know each other better. I've been reading everything and anything I can about you and it's obvious you are a beautiful, talented soul! Clearly, you'll be missed more than words can say. I love you without "knowing" you. Your energy will be missed by me and my two young children who will never know you in the flesh - only in stories which I will help to keep alive. Our deepest sympathies and regrets go out to all of Madison's family. Sincerely, Christine, David, Elliott (3 years old) and Freya (4 months old).

Christine Klein - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

DJ

“ Oh Tia, I don't know exactly how you feel but I know my heart is aching for your loss. Madison has accomplished so much in 18yrs. You and Seth must be so proud of her. I don't know why God needs her more than you, time will tell.....Please know my thoughts and prayers are of you and your family today. God Bless you all. Love, Deb

Deb Jones - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

CS

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Madison was a beautiful young woman and a very good friend to all. I met Madison this year when she began attending Farmington. She was always happy and smiled a lot. She made me smile and always had a hug for me. I will miss her terribly. She will be missed by all. She was an amazing individual, and had a lovely spirit. I loved her very much.

Courtney Schools - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

HR

“ Madi was a great friend who no matter what could make you smile and I know she will be an angel forever watching over us smiling at us and guiding us through these tough times and aiding us in our daily lives. Madi you will always be missed...-Hannah Bea Robbins

Hannah Bea Robbins - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

PR

“ Tia, I must really say that I just can never realize how much grief that you must be going through. The loss of a child that was just on the verge of woman hood and seeking her dreams, achieving her goals and lost at the blink of an eye. I could never do what you will be experiencing. My heart goes out to you and your family. My heart is with you honey. -Pam

Pam Riggs - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

AM

“ Madi, it pains me to even have to write something such as this, knowing I just talked to you days earlier. But I know that you've gone forward in your life and you're just going to show God just who MadDog is. I remember all of our talks about you know who, that one late night toothpaste fight with Kasz, every Honor Guard moment, airsoft, laser tag, hanging out at your place and anything else I forget. With all the memories you are very much alive to me and always will be in my heart. I miss you all too much.

Ashton McLaughlin - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

TF

“ Dear Madison, I consider myself lucky to have known you. Sure, the first time I saw you, it intimidated me, but as I got to know you a little bit more throughout the next couple of years I observed a beautiful, selfless, person, thank you for everything you have done. You will be missed but through this last endeavour may many be strengthened and the memories last till we meet again. Love, Todd Farley

Todd Farley - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

JG

“ Madison, there is no way to explain how i felt about you! You were a star in my eye and a beat in my heart. I have so many memories to share, i don't know where to start! I'll be talking to you in my prayers and thoughts. I know you're here with me and love you so very very much!!!! I don't know how else to say how i feel. I miss you very much!! Jessica

Jessica Giles - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

SR

“ Madison, my love for you will be eternal. We will be together again as a family, but until that day I know you look down on us. Though my heart aches, it will become stronger with you living in it.

Seth Roberts - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM

KK

“ I've been over and over this is my mind, how something like this could happen to our Mad Dog Dilly. She was the leader I always wanted to be. She was the woman I always wanted to be. We were Disney buddies, Walmart raiders, ice cream eaters, and CAP roomies at almost everything we went to. Madison meant so much to all of us in CAP and is a legend in the program. Madison meant so much to me as a friend. My heart goes out to you guys and if there is anything you need, call on us (the group) we're here. Madison- muchacho and the scots want me to pass on their love as well. Rock on, babe.

Katie Knight - November 22, 2006 at 03:15 PM