Comments

“ As children, Sue and her family would often come to my parent's camp in Manchester where we ate ice cream, played, swam, and learned how to water-ski. Oh, what fun we had water-skiing. Sue was a really good water-skier.

My parents were Carl and Betty Barnes, of Barnes Ice Cream Augusta.

Sue was closer to my age than Ann and Bobby were.

There are many wonderful memories of times spent together.

Sue's parents, Irvan and Barbara were my God-Parents.

At Christmas time, Carl, would only make a few Ice Cream Christmas Logs.

A few were sold, but because they were so time-consuming, many of these were saved as Christmas gifts to friends.

"The Millers" were always the first ones on the list of deliveries on Christmas Eve.

I remember when they moved from outer Western Ave in Augusta, to Sherwood Forest in the Lewiston/Auburn area.

I am very sorry to the Miller family for their loss.
