“ Dear Todd & Melissa, You do not really know me, but I know of you and you're precious angel, Natalie. I am so happy that I got to see her and hold her little hand on Halloween night. Memere Potvin always told me about her since she was born. You were very blessed with that special child. You loved her, cared for her and I am sure she knew what love was. She is now walking, running and playing with God and all the other angels. She will be watching over you and her precious baby brother, Noah. You will always have those wonderful memories of your little angel doll. She was beautiful. Thank you for sharing her through photos and talks of her. With my love and sincere sympathy, Pauline Obie
