LEWISTON- Normand Rene Carpentier, 87, died peacefully at home in Lewiston on Friday morning, May 1, 2020.

He was born in Auburn, Maine on November 7, 1932 to Rene and Aurore (Mathieu) Carpentier.

Normand attended St. Louis school in Auburn, Maine. He was a devout Catholic, a loving husband, dedicated father and provider for his family. He married the love of his life, Irene Marie Larue, on May 7th, 1955 at Holy Family Church in Lewiston. They were planning to celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary this May.

Normand was actively involved in the Catholic Church, such as serving at funerals and helping clean the church. He was his happiest when spending time with his family; watching them play sports, babysitting, enjoying their pool and gatherings at the lake, taking them for rides in his infamous “buggy”, playing cards, tennis and skiing until the age of 82, and much more.
