“ I'm so sorry to hear this. Great woman, friend, loving person. I was one of her kids for a while too. She is leaving a big void in a lot of peoples hearts. I'm glad I knew you well back in the day. I always saw you as a warm person. I have years of great memories of you and the whole family. I hope they have your shade of lipstick in heaven, I've never seen you without it. Bye Pat, happy trails until we meet again.

“ Dear Sis, I just want you to know life is not going to be the same without you. Within the last few years I have become so much closer to you. You don't know how much I enjoyed talking to you when we would go to Super Bingo, we would get there three hours early just to get our seat upstairs. We would pass the time by playing Rummy for a quarter and talking about our families you were so proud of your family and you were so appreciative of everything that they do for you. We would hardly ever win and after sitting for so long we would complain about our joints being stiff "I wonder why" but the memories I have of our Sunday's spent together at Super Bingo will remain with me forever I only wish we had started going years ago. You are in a better place now "Sis" no more suffering Rest in Peace. I LOVE YOU! Sister Terry.

“ There is such a hole in my heart this morning, I don't know how I'm going to get through this day and tomorrow. You have always been there for me during my difficult times, how am I going to do this without you? You have always been the best mom I could ever ask for, so giving, accepting, and loving to all. There hasn't been one person that I've introduced you to that didn't love you. You have always been my rock, the heart of this family. Walking into the house felt so different yesterday, the first thing I did is looked into the area wh you usually Sat expecting to see you. It is going to take so long for me to get over looking for you when I walk in that house. I believe you're in a better place, a place where all of your loved ones that passed before you are. You are finally going to be able to see all of them again . I believe that you are finally going to be able to mother that sweet baby girl that you lost so many years ago and show her the love that you were able to show me for so many years. One day I will see you there, that will be such a joyous day for me. Until that day rest in peace mum.

“ Aunt Pat was a very loving and giving woman. Many summer weeks as a kd I would spend with Aunt Pat, Uncle Otie and their brood. Despite having a house full of their own, they always made me feel welcomed. She ran a tight ship but you would have to with a large family. I will miss her and her smile but now she is visiting with my parents I'm sure.

“ My memories of Pat are all so sweet. Her smile and sweetness will always be embedded in our minds. I don't remember the first time I met Pat but our families are so entwined. Our families have been neighbors, friends and a few marriages resulted because of our closeness. I know we have known each other for a very long time because you called me Joycie. Only family and people that are very close call me Joycie. I will miss you so, and my heart hurts for all that are left behind.

“ Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope. Remembering you and your love one today and always. I have many happy memories going to Bingo with Pat and she always had a beautiful smile, and loved to order a ham and cheese panini sandwich.

“ Mom there is not a person on this earth that has a mother greater than ours. You always worried more about us than anything else always asking one if we have heard from the others and if we did, you wanted to know how they where. Mom I love you and will miss you terribly. This will be the saddest time in our lives and happy also knowing where you are and who you are with. I hope there is a porch there for you to see whats going on in the neighbor hood. Love You mom Bo.
