Comments

“ I was saddened at the passing of Paul Gosselin. Death casts a shadow over you as you go about your daily life. Your love one's death brings you face-to-face with the fact that he is gone too soon. While you call to mind the happy memories, you may also remember the enormity of the loss. But, “Do not let your hearts be troubled”. (John 14:27) May you find comfort as the “the last enemy”, death will be done away with. (1 Corinthians 15:25, 26). Let this time be a tribute to his wonderful life. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. ~Author Unknown
