“ It's hard to comprehend that this is real. Sharon, you have always been there for everybody, and I know this is a great loss for your family. Thanks for having me be a part of you home when me and Jenn were pre-teens and teens and into adulthood. Lots of memories for me in your home, all good ones (unless me and Jenn did something :). Pool parties to birthday parties, pampered chef to Mary Kay parties, were always great fun with you. Thank you for reaching out to me in my time of need, and hope I can pass that compassion on. Tell lil' miss Emmy "hi" for me in heaven. Love you always- Libby

“ There are so many warm happy memories of Sharon; Roller skating every weekend - trips to Mass and Bear Pond to skate. Going to the beach on the coast almost every weekend, Sun bathing on my mothers lawn in the summers and trying to bleach my hair (without success) Private talks at 3 AM that only teenagers can appreciate. We were carefree, fun loving teenagers who shared everything and would have done anything for each other. Sharon was a bright light that will be greatly missed but our memories will keep her alive forever.

“ I would like to thank the good Lord up above for giving me the opportunity to be able to be a caregiver for this beautiful laddy. The time I had with her was a blessing in my life. There were days she would be down but she wouldn't let the pain she felt slow her down. She loved to go out and see her flowers and feel the sun warming her up. She loved the out doors and being with nature. There would be mornings we would watch the birds at her bird feeder and we would wonder what kind of birds were out there. We would get her bird books and look until we found the birds that were so beautiful to look at. There would be times I could tell she was dreading the day and after our morning ritual's some days she would say alright it is time to get out of here and let's go to Kmart or Walmart or just go for a ride. She was happy being on the go. There were those days she would be glad she didn't have to go some where. I knew she wasn't feeling very well but she would try to make me think she was ok. Sharon and I became close friends. I could talke to her about things and she would help me understand what I was concerned about. She and I shared moments of laughter and moments with tears.I will never forget you Sharon. Every time I see a bird and beautiful flowers I will always remember you.
