“ Dearest Brother and Jessie, We wanted to express our deepest condolences for the tragic loss of your son. We were blessed to have watched our nephew grow and learn those master craftsmen ship skills creating those beautiful butterfly cases, not to mention the endless hours chasing the butterflies. His strong mechanical skills with motorcycles and the precision tile work he learned and shared with family. He gave us laughter and so many wonderful memories...from his need for speed, as nothing was ever fast enough which runs in our family, to him going out of his way to catch a snake which he would tease me with...since I hate snakes. We will always cherish those precious memories and we are here for you brother and will be praying for you both to get through this hard time. God bless you and may Billy rest in everlasting peace. Love Marcel and Gwen

“ No words can express my sadness for the loss my of dear cousin Billy. I have many found memories and will cherish them forever. Memories of growing up chasing butterflies through the fields next to my house. Then Billy shocking my mom with freezing them in our kitchen fridge to preserve them, so he can take them back to Maine. Trips to Maine where we always had huge family gatherings....lobsters all around. Going in his room at the octagon house to him opening the closet door and beautiful butterflies flying out filling up his room. Then going to the lake to catch turtles and playing around the large rocks at the end the of driveway. To building huge sand castles at the ocean and searching for critters in the tide pools. His talents amazed us with those beautiful butterfly cases...which is always a topic of conversations when guest visit my home. I know he had some struggles from his accident, but I was amazed how he pushed through the pain and challenges. My memories of Billy will always bring a smile, the fact that you're no longer here will cause me pain, but you're forever in my heart until we meet again. My deepest condolences to Uncle Maurice, Aunt Jessie, Maurice G and Billy Jr. Your in my thoughts and prayers. Love always Crystal.

“ All of my kind thoughts go to you (Jessie and Maurice) and his family. I ask God to bless all of you and aid you in this time of sadness. I am sure his grandfather, Bill, would be extremely happy with the town he chose for his home. They are probably discussing it now. I wish you all well.

“ My sincere condolences in the loss of your son at such a young age. I loved him and always enjoyed seeing him on my visits to Maine. He was always nice and polite also a great Tile setter. I was thinking of paying his way to Nashville and have him stay with me to tile my bathroom whenever I decided to remodel it this year. Will miss you, Billy.
